

"INDISCRETION" IS AGAIN DISCUSSED

MEMBER CONSIDERS BLAME RESTS ON BUELOW

Considers it Tragic That Emperor Finds Himself in Such a Plight.

Berlin, Nov. 11.—The Reichstag was again crowded to-day when the debate on the interview with Emperor William, published in the London Telegraph on October 28th, was resumed. The House listened with undiminished attention while the constitutionality of Emperor William's private intervention in the foreign affairs of the nation was discussed.

Chancellor von Buelow and all the ministers, including Baron von Kiderman, the acting foreign minister, were present, and the diplomatic and other galleries were crowded.

Baron Gamp (Conservative) said he thought that the anger and bitterness shown yesterday by Herr Liebermann von Sonnenberg, the agrarian and anti-semitic, was no way to treat such a sorrowful subject. It was tragic, he said, that a sovereign with so many admirable qualities should find himself in such a plight. His Majesty's trouble ought rather to be ascribed to the responsible advisor, who, since the time of Bismarck, has never been able to tell his Majesty the truth.

LABOR LEADERS ARE INCENSED AT ROOSEVELT

Will Refuse Invitation to White House—Snub to President Gompers.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 11.—The News today says: "President Roosevelt's snub to President Gompers will be resented by John Mitchell, Daniel J. Keefe and James Duncan as soon as they receive the president's invitation to attend the executive dinner at the White House next Tuesday. These three members of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor have decided that they will refuse the invitation.

"These officials have decided that if President Roosevelt wanted to do anything in the interest of labor it should be done through the organization (the American Federation of Labor) recognized as the parent body of all unions in the country."

SAYS CHINA IS ITCHING FOR WAR WITH JAPAN

Missionary Tells of Armies Being Trained Both Night and Day.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 11.—Declaring that the youth of China, the younger and more progressive element in the nation, would in a great revolution overthrow the present dynasty, Rev. Wm. Christie, a missionary at the Christian and Mission Alliance, stated that great disturbances were about due in the Celestial empire, and also that a war with Japan was in contemplation.

Mr. Christie said: "The object of the revolutionary movement is to overthrow the present dynasty, which is hated for its conservatism and feared for its power.

"During the past year there have been three attempts, each before the movement was ripe. The unrest is being fostered by the student element.

"China is not afraid of Japan. The government is working night and day in the training of men for the war with Japan that eventually will come. All this talk of conciliation between China and Japan in the event of another war with the western nations, is ridiculous."

WOULD ABOLISH CABLE MONOPOLY

SILENCING INFLUENCES THAT MAKE FOR WAR

Henniker Heaton Makes Strong Plea for Penny-a-word Cablegrams.

London, Nov. 11.—Henniker Heaton, the father of the Imperial penny postage idea, addressed a big audience in the Royal Colonial Institute last evening, and advocated the transmission of cablegrams at one penny a word. He declared that an immediate end ought to be put to the present cable monopoly at any cost, and that the cable companies should be bought out at the market price by the civilized governments of the world.

The first step to this end would be a conference of the postmasters general of Europe and the establishment of the penny a word rate in this hemisphere, then there should be a conference with the postal authorities of America. The carrying capacity of the cable lines between the continent and America, Mr. Heaton declared, was twelve times greater than the amount of business at present handled, and a majority of them were unscrupulously kept idle by the cable monopoly.

Civilized governments should and would abolish frontiers for telegraphic purposes. Mr. Heaton urged a universal tariff as the best way to clear up misunderstandings and bring race in touch with race, thus silencing the influences that make for war.

SAY TIPPING HABIT IS UNDESIRABLE

International Hotelkeepers' Congress Consider Ways of Curtailing Practice.

New York, Nov. 11.—Special cable dispatches from Rome say: The International Hotelkeepers Congress, which has been in session here for several days wending up with a discussion of tipping. The expression was practically unanimous that the habit was undesirable, the greatest obstacle to its abolition being, however, the unwillingness of a large class of travelers to renounce the right of awarding the special attentions of servants.

It was resolved that the custom should be abolished if possible, and it was certainly desirable to regulate it. Therefore, when travelers wished to tip hotelkeepers, they should do so in a discreet manner, charging therefore 11 percent on bills not exceeding $4 and ten percent on higher accounts.

LIBERAL AHEAD IN PRINCE ALBERT

W. W. RUTTAN HAS LEAD OF ONE HUNDRED

Seventy-eight Polls to Be Heard From in Deferred Election.

(Special to the Times).
Prince Albert, Sask., Nov. 11.—The deferred Prince Albert election for the federal house took place yesterday. Three candidates were in the field: James McKay, K. C. (Conservative), W. W. Ruttan (Liberal), and Honore Jaxon (Independent).
At midnight yesterday fifty out of one hundred and twenty-eight polls in Prince Albert had been heard from, giving Ruttan (Liberal) a lead of one hundred. The Liberal committee claims he will have a large majority as the Liberal districts have yet to come in.

The Hudson Bay railroad was the big issue in the campaign. The Liberal candidate being strongly in favor of immediate construction. The Liberals claimed that if Mr. Ruttan was elected, Prince Albert will have a terminal of the new line.

Honore Jaxon, the independent candidate, is one of the most picturesque and interesting characters in the Canadian west. He has had a most romantic career. He is a Toronto university graduate, taking a brilliant stand. He drifted west in the early days and allied himself with Louis Riel, becoming his secretary of state. After the rebellion he turned towards the States and was engaged in journalism, joining the Socialist movement. It is only a few years ago that he returned to Canada. He polled a large vote among the French half-breeds of Duck Lake and Batchee.

U. S. COMPANY ACCUSED OF WHITE SLAVERY

Peonage Alleged in Construction of Florida East Coast Railway.

New York, Nov. 11.—The cases of alleged peonage in building Henry M. Flagler's Florida East Coast railroad, which have been pending in the United States courts of this district for nearly two years, were put on trial before Judge Hough in the United States circuit court yesterday.

David E. Harley, an employee of the Florida East Coast railway, Francesco Sabbia and Edward J. Triay, employment agents of this city, and Frank A. Huff, an accused in enforced peonage, Huff had not been arrested before the opening of the case yesterday.

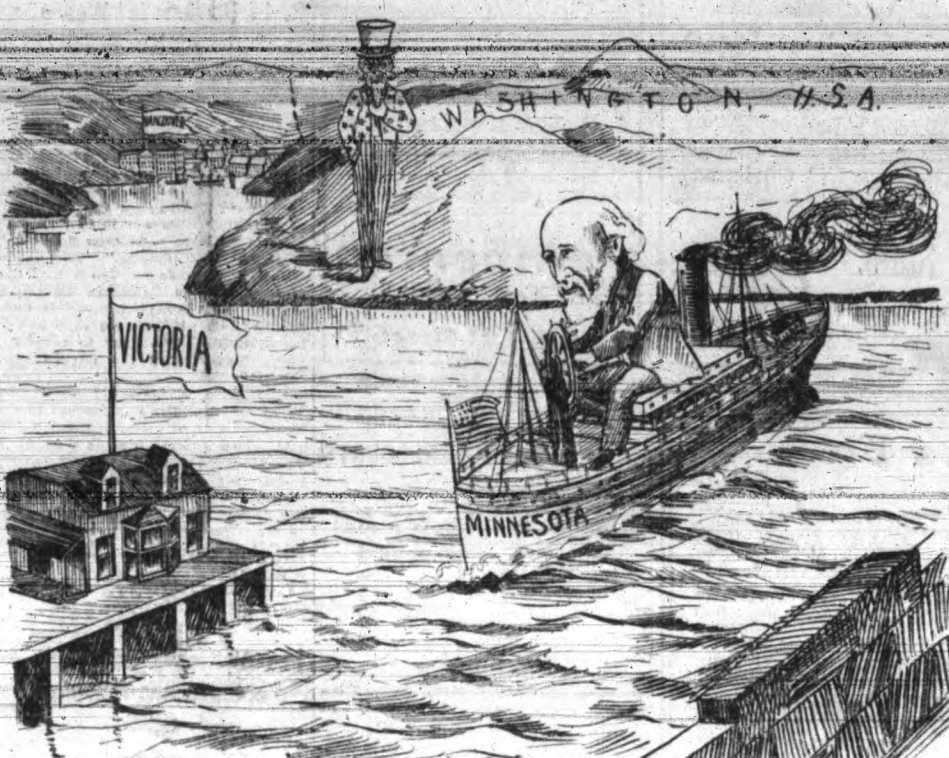

It is charged that Triay and Sabbia hired men in New York to work in New Jersey and turned them over to Harley to take them to Florida. The complaint states that the workmen were kept there in camps in a state of peonage, slavery and enforced servitude. John B. Stanchfield, who appeared for the accused men, is the personal counsel for Mr. Flagler.

After a jury had been selected, Deputy Attorney-General Usted outlined the prosecution's case, contending that the treatment accorded the workmen supplied to the Florida East Coast Company by the defendants was nothing short of slavery.

John P. Stanchfield, attorney for the Florida East Coast Company, and personal counsel for Henry M. Flagler, the company's president and principal shareholder, moved that the indictment charging peonage and slavery be dismissed, as the one charge destroyed the other. Judge Hough was inclined to hold that the charge of peonage could not rest, but declared that he would rule in the matter on any point brought out during the presentation of the evidence.

REIGN OF TERROR IN CALCUTTA

DASTARDLY ATTEMPT ON LIFE OF SIR A. FRASER

Detective Shot Dead by Revolutionists—Arms Shipped in From U. S. A.

Calcutta, Nov. 11.—The city of Calcutta is terrorized by an outbreak of political crimes. The daring, but unsuccessful, attempt made four days ago on the life of Sir Andrew L. H. Fraser, the lieutenant governor of Bengal, was followed by a murder on Monday evening. A Bengal detective, who had been active in trailing the revolutionists, was shot down on a crowded street by three men.

The people fear to give information concerning the criminals, lest vengeance be visited upon them. The police are powerless.

One of the two natives who was found guilty of murdering a man named Gossains last summer was hanged yesterday. All the police reserves of the city have been ordered on duty to prevent sympathetic demonstrations.

In the course of a trial at Midnapore, Bengal, in connection with a discovery of arms and explosives, a police informer testified that one of the accused had told him that many cases of rifles and revolvers had been shipped from America to Bombay under the guise of sewing machines and cotton goods.

The attack on Sir Andrew Fraser was peculiarly daring, and was the third since his appointment in 1903. The lieutenant governor accompanied by the Maharajah of Burdwan, an important division of Bengal, and Secretary Barber of the Y. M. C. A. attended a lecture given by Professor E. D. Burton of Chicago university at the town hall, which was crowded with an audience that included many of the most prominent residents.

Just as the lieutenant governor stepped upon the dais, a young man, who afterward gave the name of Snowdun, rushed up and thrust a revolver within a few inches of Sir Andrew's body and pulled the trigger twice, but the cartridges missed fire and Mr. Barber, who is an American, flung himself upon the Bengal. The latter struck savagely at the secretary with his revolver and wounded him severely on the head, but was eventually overpowered.

In the meantime the Maharajah, a man of great stature and strength, called the lieutenant governor and flung him bodily through a door out of harm's way. A group of Bengalis occupying chairs jumped quickly to their feet and rushed out of the hall. They escaped during the commotion. It is believed that they were present in order to assassinate Snowdun, but took alarm at his complete failure to carry out his plan.

EXPLOSION ON LAKE STEAMER

SHOCKING SCENE ABOARD TEMISKAMING; FIVE DEAD

Passengers Hurlled Into Lake When Boilers Blow Up—Number Badly Burned.

North Bay, Ont., Nov. 10.—A frightful accident occurred late last evening on Lake Temiskaming, adding a sacrifice of at least five lives to the already long list of shipping casualties which have occurred in one way or another on this body of water. Yesterday's catastrophe occurred about 6 o'clock when the boilers of the steamer Temiskaming, owned by the Temiskaming Navigation Company, blew up as the vessel was nearing a place known as Temiskaming landing on her regular trip from Haliburton.

From the scant details of the accident received here nothing is known as to the exact cause of the explosion, but five persons are believed to be dead and several others are injured, two of them probably fatally.

The steamer was carrying passengers and freight when without any warning her boilers suddenly exploded, wrecking the steamer and throwing passengers and crew into a terrible panic, several being cast into the lake by the force of the explosion. The scene is very remote, Temiskaming landing being on a branch of the C. P. R. running north from Mattawa.

It is known that five met death from the explosion or drowning, while many are injured. A special train left Mattawa to bring the injured to that place for treatment. So far as ascertained last night the casualty list includes: McBride, a hunter from the United States, missing; J. Menard, fireman, dead; and Fireman Bergeron, dead. McBride is supposed to have been drowned. Two men, names unknown, with die and at least six others are badly burned.

NINE BODIES TAKEN FROM WRECKAGE

Number of Fatalities in Rear End Collision in Louisiana.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 11.—In a rear end collision on the New Orleans and Northeastern railway near this city to-day nine persons are reported killed and several injured. The accident was caused by a New Orleans and Great Northern train running into a northwestern incoming passenger train.

At 9:30 it was said that all the dead and injured had not been removed from the wreck. The northwestern train was made up of five coaches and a baggage car and all were derailed. The wreckage caught fire but was soon extinguished.

Up to 10 o'clock nine dead bodies have been taken from the wreckage. Littlewoods is a water tank station in the swamp which lies north of New Orleans in the Mississippi River valley. It is practically inaccessible either by phone or telegraph.

Mountain Crags Totter With Repeated Shocks—Consternation in District.

San Bernardino, Cal., Nov. 11.—Death Valley and the surrounding country are in the throes of a series of earthquakes which began three weeks ago, and the most violent of which occurred on Wednesday, causing consternation. Many miners and prospectors have fled from the region. For three weeks there have been one or two rumblings daily. The dismal crags of the funeral range seemed to totter when a more severe shock came last week. Miners were tossed from their bunks, camp equipments were scattered about, horses and mules stampeded and immense boulders were thrown down.

TWO DIE IN TRAIN WRECK

Saybrook, Conn., Nov. 11.—Two men were killed outright, two others fatally injured and a half-dozen severely hurt when a work train with Italian section men aboard crashed into the rear of a freight train, headed south, standing on the main track of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad in front of the station here yesterday afternoon. The twenty-eight Italians on the work train, which consisted of two cabooses and the engine, all suffered injuries. The dead are: Frank A. Farlong, of New London, a brakeman on the work train, and one Italian section hand. It appears that there was some mistake in signals.

This will invite bids for the construction of a long-distance high power station to be located in or near Washington, capable of transmitting messages 3,000 miles to ships at sea. The same advertisement will ask for bids for ship wireless equipment guaranteeing a sending radius of 1,000 miles, and a receiving radius equivalent to the sending radius of the Washington station.

SETTLER'S RIGHTS CASE IN VANCOUVER COURTS

Appeal in Suit of E. & N. Railway vs. L. Fiddick and Others.

(Special to The Times.)

Vancouver, Nov. 11.—"The E. & N. Railway Company was not represented before the Lieutenant-Governor in council, when these settlers made their application and received their grants. It seems to me that both sides should have been present. We would like to hear the arguments upon that." But counsel were not ready to argue this new point raised by Mr. Justice Clem-ent, in the full court to-day and it was put at the foot of the list.

It is an appeal by the railway against the decision of Chief Justice Hunter, who decided in favor of Alex Fiddick and a number of other Vancouver Is-land settlers upholding their grants made under the act of 1904 which, as the privy council held in the McGregor case, gives the settlers mineral as well as surface rights. The latter have never been in dispute.

The railway company claimed the full title under its Dominion grant to the minerals in the lands thus granted to the settlers but the settlers and the government won in that case, the law lords holding that act to be constitu-tional. The dispute involved in the present case is chiefly as to whether the settlers complied with the terms of that act in making their application. The chief justice held that the railway company could not go behind the act and could not inquire into the crown's reasons for making grants.

Bodwell & Lutton appeared for the railway company and L. G. Phillips and Mr. Larsen for the settlers.

IMPRESSIVE TRIBUTE TO LATE VICTORIEN SARDOU

Tens of Thousands Witness
Funeral of Great French Dramatist.

Paris, Nov. 11.—Victorien Sardou, the French author and dramatist, who died on November 8th, was buried in this city to-day. Although extremely sim-ple, the funeral was an impressive tri-bute to the place which Sardou holds in the hearts of the French people. He would have been gladly accorded a state funeral, but he expressed the wish that he be buried without cere-mony. At his special request even flowers were omitted. He was, how-ever, given the military honors always accorded those who have received the Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor. The privacy with which all the ar-rangements were carried out, however, were unable to prevent tens of thou-sands in every walk of life from com-ing to lift their hats and bow their heads in memory of the beloved dra-matist.

HINDUS IN COURT.

Trouble Over Stove Results in Charge of Assault.

The Singhs have been haunting the police court for days past. First there was Bhutah Singh's charge of theft against Jug Singh and Narain Singh, Sonia, Singh and Bhugwan Singh, which was dismissed for lack of cor-roborative evidence. This kept the dark-skinned, turbaned gentleman about the court for three or four days.

The abortive proceedings taken by Bhutah Singh were followed by a charge of assault laid by Sonia, in which he in-cluded not only Bhutah, but Sonah Singh and Luchman Singh. After some delay on the part of the parties the case came on for hearing this afternoon before Magistrate Jay.

The trouble all arose over the own-ership of a stove. Sonia and Bhutah were living in the same room of a house back of Sayward's mill in which several Hindus are living. About a month ago Sonia moved and was tak-ing the stove, which he swears was his, when Bhutah objected. According to Sonia's story in the box this after-noon there was a rough-and-tumble, and the three accused tried to persuade him while he lay on the floor that the stove was not his.

The case is still going on. Fred Peters, Esq., is appearing for the complainant, and D. S. Tait for the accused.

"IT IS TIME FOR A CHANGE"

TORIES WANT TUPPER
TO LEAD THEIR PARTY.

R. L. Borden is Weary, and
Some of His Followers
Are Dissatisfied.

(Special to The Times.)

Montreal, Que., Nov. 11.—A wing of the Conservative party, dissatisfied with the result of R. L. Borden's lead-ership, is agitating for the nomination of Sir Hibbert Tupper in Carleton. The idea is to have a caucus declare "It is time for a change." The leaders will provide R. L. Borden with a com-fortable job as Canadian Pacific sol-licitor. Mr. Borden himself is weary and will be glad to get out, but be-lieves it to be his duty to remain as party leader until the party decides otherwise.

The question is would Sir Hibbert Tupper accept the nomination in Car-leton even if offered by Borden him-self. The general idea is that Sir H. Tupper will recognize the futility of re-entering the federal arena at this stage, but if he accepts he can have the leadership.

RICH RANCHING LAND IN OOSTA COUNTRY

The District is Admirably Adapted to the Raising of Stock.

The northern part of the province has undoubtedly a great future and will add to the riches of British Columbia to a marked extent. The Oosta country, ac-cording to E. P. Colley, who for several years past has been in charge of the sur-vey of that region, promises to be a rich ranching area.

The soil is very productive, with a gravelly sub-soil, beneath which lies a clay. The result is that the moisture is maintained well in the soil, producing a luxuriant growth of vegetation. So dense is the pea vine and other grasses that the surveyors have difficulty in carrying on their work in the summer months, and the best progress is made after the frosts arrive.

There have already been some herds of cattle taken into the country, the feed being plentiful. A few months' fodder has to be put up for the winter months in the form of hay, and the cattle kept confined to prevent the wandering astray. Mr. Colley says that instances have occurred of cattle returning to Bella Coola whence they had been originally purchased. This necessitated 150 miles of a tramp and the loss of several head. In order to prevent this the cattle have to be kept confined during the winter months. The grass of the Oosta coun-try is highly nutritious and the cattle be-come very fat. The building of the C. & P. to Francis lake, with a steamer placed on it, will bring the valley into close touch with the railway. The one end will be within six miles of the steamer land-ing on the lake, so that the trans-portion facilities will be all that could be desired for a ranching country.

The prospects in cattle raising are ex-cellent. Mr. Colley thinks, as the winters are less severe than they are in the prairie sections devoted to ranching.

FREE PORCH LIGHTS

Are Provided For in By-law Before Nelson City Council.

Nelson, Nov. 10.—At the last meeting of the city council a by-law was in-troduced and advanced to the third reading allowing users of electric light a porch light free, reducing electric power rates for domestic purposes and generally fixing a new scale of prices. The by-law went through without question until a clause was reached al-lowing a special discount of 10 per cent. for the first year and of 5 per cent. the second year to a new industry starting in or within a mile from the city.

Four aldermen took objections to this as it would be unfair to existing indus-tries in that it would bonus their com-petitors. The clause was finally amend-ed so that this should apply only to in-dustries such as would not compete with others of the same line of busi-ness already established.

Mayor Taylor brought up the matter of giving a special rate for porch lights to householders who use electric light. The idea met with ready response, and a four-candle porch light will be sup-plied free to all users of electric light resident within the city, the house-holder to pay the cost of installing the light.

FOG AT VANCOUVER TIES UP SHIPPING

Steamer Charmer, Carrying Mails, Missed One Trip
Yesterday.

The fog has caused a considerable disturbance in the coast shipping. Steamer Charmer, which should have left Vancouver for Victoria with the mails yesterday at 1 o'clock, did not pull out on account of the thick fog pervading Vancouver harbor. She waited for a long time, her officers hoping that the fog would lift. Her captain had strict orders, however, not to cast off until he could see his way, and finally the trip was cancelled alto-gether. She left this afternoon and will arrive here on time. She con-nected with the train.

COAL COMPANY BUILDING LINE

RAILWAY FROM MINE
TO BOAT HARBOR

South Wellington Output to Be Carried to Deep Water.

The South Wellington Coal Company of this city is having the railway line which is to connect its mines with deep water pushed to completion.

The road will be about seven miles in length. It is being constructed in fourteen different sections, all the tim-ber and brush has been cleared, and at the present time there is not less than half mile in which the soil has not been thrown up in the grading. Temporary construction tracks have been laid and trucks are run in with the timber for ties and bridges.

The harbor selected is Boat harbor, a small but very safe little anchorage, about three miles south of Dodd's nar-row.

The line starts at South Wellington, crosses the E. & N. at Fiddick's Junction and meets Nanaimo river, where a large island separates its stream near McKinnell's farm. Over the main body of the river, a one hundred and fifty foot Howe truss bridge, which will contain 600 feet of trestling, will be constructed. The line will circle the Whetsthead hotel, near where the com-pany is instituting coal boring opera-tions. From this place the road will lie on a fairly straight and level line to Trols Bras or Holden's lake. The south shore is followed to the bottom which will be traversed on a trestling to a ridge, which is followed to the shore of Boat harbor, where a bridge will con-nect it with Swan Island, an inlet in the bay. The harbor will be fully 90 feet in depth at low tide off the wharves.

At present the construction of the entire line is being pushed ahead at a rapid rate. The contractors state that no railway construction work on the island is being put through with so much energy. Sub-contracts have been set to S. York & Co., of Cedar district, and many of the farmers are engaged on the work.

COUNCIL CHAMBER GUTTED.

Well-known Painting of Daniel O'Con-nell Perishes in Flames at Dublin.

Dublin, Nov. 11.—The council cham-ber of the Dublin corporation was gut-tered by fire to-day and the city hall itself had a narrow escape from de-struction. All the paintings in the rooms of the chamber, many of which were of historic interest, including the well-known picture of Daniel O'Con-nell, were destroyed by the flames.

RATES CONTINUE NEARLY STATIONARY

Chartering Has Been Fairly Ac-tive During Past Week.

Confirmation of the charter to the German ship, Wandgard, has been re-ceived. The vessel has been taken by Kerr, Gifford & Co. to load grain on Puget Sound for the United Kingdom. The rate of the Wandgard is said to be 28s. 6d. It is understood that she will take the greater part of her cargo at Tacoma. The Wandgard was fixed prior to her arrival on the Sound, but the charter was not made public. The schooner Metha Nelson has been char-tered by the Charles Nelson company to carry lumber from Eureka to La-Pak.

In commenting on the charter market the San Francisco Daily Commercial News says in its weekly review:

"Both grain and lumber chartering have been fairly active during the week, with rates easy. Barley, San Francisco to the United Kingdom has been done at 28s. 6d. for spot ship, and more are offering at that figure. An-other large steamer has been fixed for grain, Portland loading, and a smaller charter was not made public. The schooner Metha Nelson has been char-tered by the Charles Nelson company to carry lumber from Eureka to La-Pak.

"Offshore rates are quoted approxi-mately as follows: Lumber from Pu-get Sound or British Columbia to Syd-ney, 28s. 6d. (30s.); to Melbourne or Ade-laid, 28s. 6d. (30s.); to Port Pirie, 28s. 6d. (30s.); to Fremantle, 27s. 6d.; to Japan ports (steamer), 28s.; Callao, 27s. 6d. (30s.); direct nitrate ports, 27s. 6d. (30s.). Valparaiso for orders, 28s. 6d. (30s.); 2s. 6d. less to a direct port; to South Afri-can ports, 47s. 6d. (50s.); to United King-dom or continent, 50s. (52s. 6d.); Guaya-quas, 55s. 75s.; Santa Rosalia, 56s. 50s.

"Weddel, Turner & Co.'s Australasian freight report, dated London, October 29th, says:

"South Australia—Several steamers taken for wheat to United Kingdom or continent at 20s. to 22s., two with the option of Mediterranean at 18s. 3d. ex-tra; three or four sailing vessels fixed for United Kingdom or continent at 21s. to 22s.; option Cape at about 2s. less.

"West Australia and Victoria—No change.

"New South Wales, Newcastle—No- vember steamer fixed for West Coast at 15s. one port, 15s. 3d. two ports. Sail-vessel fixed for San Francisco at 12s. option Honolulu at 14s.; nitrate ports done at 15s. 6d. to 17s. 6d.

"Queensland and New Zealand—Nothing doing.

"Tasmania—Sailing ship, fixable for United Kingdom or continent at about 27s. 6d. per load of piles, November and December."

COUNCIL HAD A BUSY SESSION

TO HOLD INQUIRY INTO WASH-HOUSE COMPLAINT

Large Number of Street Works Are Authorized—Fencing of Lots.

A great deal of routine work was done by the city council at its meeting last evening. All the aldermen were present. The Mayor's words of congratulation to Ald. Fullerton, who was present for the first time since his recent accident, were heartily endorsed by the whole body.

The question of a supply of water to Oak Bay is apparently shelved indefinitely. A letter was read from the secretary of the municipality regarding the agreement forwarded from the city council a week ago, and pointing out that as the Oak Bay council could not at present get any definite information as to what water was going to be supplied to the municipality it had decided to defer action on the agreement until the city could state what the cost to the municipality of water for domestic and municipal purposes would be.

The letter was "received and filed" on motion of Aldermen Hall and Henderson.

Natural History Club.
A deputation from the Natural History Club, consisting of Canon Beaulieu, J. R. Anderson, C. Pemberton, A. E. Wallace and F. Sylvester, asked for permission to use one of the rooms in the Carnegie library for its meetings. Canon Beaulieu said the club would be quite willing to give its excellent library on natural history subjects to the reference department of the library, on the understanding, of course, that if the club should subsequently have to leave the library building it would take its books.

The council willingly granted the request. Foster Macgurn, president of the Royal Athletic Association, which is proposing to spend $5,000 on its grounds, asked for a civic grant of $500. He pointed out that the grounds would equal any in the Dominion and would be used by school athletic associations free of charge.

The request was referred to the finance committee.

Ald. Henderson and Hall moved, and it was carried, that it was desirable for the city to re-present its bill to the legislature asking for authority to generate and sell electric power.

City Solicitor Mann said he had a draft bill ready for council as soon as it could meet to consider it.

Chinese Wash-houses.
Wm. Neal, Quadra street, wrote pointing out that it was now the tenth of November and no perceptible action had yet been taken to remove the Chinese wash-house at the corner of Fort and Quadra street, although the council had decided to act in the matter.

Ald. Pauline said it was understood that the nuisance was to be abated and the building no longer used for a wash-house. It was a nuisance to Mr. Neil and the building contravened the wash-house by-law.

Ald. Gleason stated that the health and morals committee had visited the place six months ago and reported that the council should take action. He moved that an inquiry be held into this case on Monday night next and that it should include the laundry on Store street next the station. No premises could possibly be in a worse condition than these latter.

The motion was adopted.

Unfenced Properties.
The city solicitors impressed on the council that it should take advantage of its power to pass a by-law compelling the fencing of all unfenced lands fronting on public streets and highways, owners before erecting fences to obtain from the officials appointed for that purpose the line of the street. The by-law should make regulations necessary and provide for a fee not exceeding $5 for giving the line. The necessity for such a by-law had come under their attention, the solicitors said, quite frequently in dealing with Victoria West.

In regard to Victoria West, the solicitors advised that for the convenience of the new residents in the blocks east of Catherine street and north of Edward street an attempt should be made to open up what is known as Alston street, on the reserve. Under the Indian Act a public road could be made by the city upon paying to the Indians affected an amount fixed by arbitration. The city should make assertion of its rights in regard to that street. A road 23 feet wide should be made. At the same time leave ought to be asked for the filling of amendments to the width of the two roads from Point Ellice bridge to the bounds of the reserve and through it.

The report was referred to the legislation committee.

Repairing Cranmore Road.

A request was read from Oak Bay municipality for permission to take gravel from the corporation pit off Cranmore road. The road was originally made by the provincial government, but owing to the heavy traffic on it it is in a bad condition. The municipality is about to re-gravel this road and asked that it be allowed to take gravel from the city pit to enable it to make a first class road.

Ald. Henderson moved that the gravel be given for that part of the road running alongside city property, and this was agreed to.

An invitation from the B. C. Tuberculosis Society to the mayor and aldermen to attend the ceremony of laying the foundation stone of the Tranquille sanatorium was read, and an acknowledgment with thanks ordered to be sent.

It was decided to call for tenders for printing the municipal voters' list for 1909.

Permanent Improvements.

The by-law to authorize the raising of $13,250 for works of local improvement on Vining, Gladstone and Bank streets was put through. The work will consist of the following: Permanent sidewalks on both sides of Vining street, between Stanley avenue and Belmont avenue, and grading and macadamizing a roadway twenty-four feet in width; permanent sidewalk on the north side of Gladstone street, from Fernwood road to Stanley street, and to macadamize and grade Gladstone street from Belmont avenue to Shakespeare street; to grade, macadamize and drain Bank street, between Oak Bay road and Fort street, Sunnyside avenue will be graded and gravelled and a permanent sidewalk laid on the south side thereof, and a permanent sidewalk will be constructed on the north side of Garbally road from the Gorge road to lot A1.

On the petition of Weiler Bros. and other owners, Gordon street, between Broughton and Courtney streets, is to be paved and permanent sidewalks put down, while similar work is in progress on the two latter streets.

The British America Paint Company complained of the condition of Belleville street, between Montreal and St. John streets, as being worse than before the city began to improve it. The road was ordered to be attended to at once.

Ald. Pauline drew attention to the need for properly safeguarding all trenches and piles of earth where street work is under way as to have no danger traps left for citizens to walk into at night. In view of the approaching rainy season Ald. Pauline insisted that street crossings should be kept clean, whether the city had the means or not. He was sure citizens would endorse whatever the council did in this direction.

Works Reported On.

The streets, bridges and sewers committee reported as follows, and the report was adopted:

Recommended that the proposed system of sewerage that portion of Victoria West, lying between Dominion, Craigflower and Old Esquimaux roads, as shown on the plan submitted by the city engineer, be approved, and that the work of construction be proceeded with, provided that there are sufficient funds remaining unappropriated out of the last sewer loan to carry out the work.

Recommended that a two-plank sidewalk be constructed on the south side of Cowan avenue, between Davis street and Madison street, and along the west side of Madison street, provided funds are available for the purpose. Estimated cost $22.

Recommended that L. Dickinson be informed that the council, after giving the matter of his claim for the payment of half the cost of sewerage his premises on Belleville street, cannot see its way to contribute anything towards the same.

Recommended that a short piece of box drain be constructed on Ontario street to carry off the surface water which accumulates in front of lots 27, 28, 29, 30 on said street. Estimated cost, $20.

Recommended that a surface drain be constructed on Putnam street, as per request of Alex. Stewart. Estimated cost $20.

Recommended that a sewer be constructed on Hilda street, between Chester street and Linden avenue. Estimated cost $200.

Recommended that Major C. T. Dupont be communicated with for the purpose of ascertaining upon what conditions he would permit of the residents on Belmont avenue to drain their property into the sewer which runs through his property.

Re communication of Robert Arnold et al., asking permission to erect a building on Broad street at the rear of the brick building situate on the north-west corner of Yates and Broad streets for the use of auto drivers during the winter.

Recommended that the petitioners be informed that the council regret that, owing to a structure of this nature being contrary to the by-laws of the city, permission for its erection must be refused.

Recommended that, with reference to the request of the B. C. Electric Railway Company, to be given the grade on Gladstone avenue, for the purpose of constructing a spur line from their track on said avenue into lot 57, Spring Ridge, that the company be informed that the council, after having given this matter full consideration, cannot see their way to recommend that the request be granted.

MAX FIGMAN SCORES

IN "THE SUBSTITUTE"

Delightful Comedy Draws Full

House at Victoria

Theatre.

There is but one Max Figman, and he was seen last night at the Victoria theatre in the role of Jimmy Smith.

The principal comedy part of the four act comedy drama, "The Substitute," by Beulah M. Dix and Evelyn Greenleaf Sutherland, and when Jimmy ended the night of laughter sitting on the edge of the court house table, with a freshly lighted cigar in the corner of his mouth, and his peculiar-shaped flat-crowned summer hat awry on the edge of his brain, he exclaimed:

"Not so bad for a substitute," there was not one person in the capacity house which witnessed the sparkling comedy who did not agree with him. "The Substitute" is a picturesque amusing comedy and with Max Figman in the principal role, portrayed in his inimitable manner and assisted by the accomplished company which last night supported him, it is easily one of the best Victoria has had the benefit of witnessing.

The story is that of a lawyer who at the last moment is compelled to act as a substitute for a clergyman about to preach his trial sermon. Jimmy never preaches that sermon for the real substitute arrives on time, but the newly appointed district attorney of West Appleford drops on to a mare's nest in the case of supposed embezzlement by the Rev. Hoffman Lothrop and Jimmy being on the spot and a member of a firm of famous lawyers and also in the manner in which Jimmy brings confusion about her head, and her confession in the witness box that she thought the missionary funds were better spent in diamond sunbursts than on little cannibal babies, were all excellent pieces of stage conception faithfully and clearly delineated by the two members of the company in whose hands they are placed.

The Ester Diffy of Miss Agnes Everett who discerns that Jimmy is a fake when in the role of substitute because he knows how to swear at the psychological moment and omit to say grace at the evening meal and for other reasons, is a character as faithfully portrayed as that of "The Substitute." All members of the company acquitted themselves in a finished manner, their parts being studies to the last detail, and "The Substitute," which had its pathos as well as its abundant comedy, provided an evening of delightful entertainment for patrons of the Victoria theatre, who were fortunate in securing a seat in the house last night. The curtain, according to advertisement, rose shortly after 8 o'clock and the usual late comers and those who arrive after the usual hour of 8:30 were considerably the losers by their action.

—The funeral of the late Charles James Young took place yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the residence of his sister, Mrs. E. J. Monk, Chamber street, where an impressive service was conducted by Rev. W. Leslie Clay. There was a large attendance of friends, present and many beautiful floral offerings were sent. The following acted as pallbearers: W. Appleton, A. Wale, F. Richardson, W. Williams, W. H. Pennick and A. Rey.

COUNCIL SEEKS MEANS

BAY CONFUSE PLAYERS

Funds May Have to Be Diverted From Other Sources.

A special meeting of the city council will be held to-morrow evening to consider the financial situation. There is a shortage of funds for the current year, and the council is seeking means to meet the deficit. The city controller, J. L. Raymur, is preparing a statement of revenue and expenditure for the current year for submission to the council at their meeting. Another matter on which a preliminary report will be made is a report from the same official as water commissioner, advocating revision of water rates. This revision, it is understood, will be in an upward direction.

No Money for Streets. Apropos of the lack of money, the following report from the city engineer was read:

"Gentlemen:—I would again respectfully call your attention to the fact that the annual amount voted for maintenance of the streets, bridges and sidewalks is entirely insufficient. I may say the present month's funds are nearly all needed to pay the labor and supplies for October, there being nothing left to even clean crossings and do what work is absolutely necessary. There is no use in the citizens constantly complaining about the filthy condition of the streets, etc., unless your honorable body can see your way clear to vote an additional sum for this purpose.

The following statement will show how impossible it is to attempt to do anything towards cleaning macadam streets, even in the business centre:

4 carts and drivers, per day	$12.50
5 men cleaning bulk pavements	10.00
3 men cleaning gutters, etc.	6.25
4 men cleaning crossings, etc.	10.00
side the centre	2.00
2 men breaking rock	2.00
2 men repairing plank walks, bridges, etc.	19.00
Lumber supplies, etc.	19.00
Total	$83.25

"From the above statement you can see we are running about $8 over our daily allowance and are not even getting on for spending in the summer months or for blasting and crushing rock for repairs of macadam roadways in the winter.

"Regarding the cleaning of macadam roads with horse machines, I might state I would strongly recommend this be done, but, however, necessary to vote $50 per day for every day the plant is in operation for a total sum for immediate requirements of $500 in order to quickly remove the material from the streets.

"If no funds are available at present, I think, in all fairness to the council and myself, the citizens should know the truth, and in the incoming year provide the ways and means to do at least what work is absolutely necessary. See annual reports of 1902, page 25.

"In closing this report, I take the liberty of pointing out that in view of the large increase of work in my department, it will be necessary in the near future to engage more assistance. I have gone carefully into the reports of Eastern cities and find that we have been doing three times as much work as some of those of double our population.

"In one of the cases above mentioned, there are three assistant engineers supervising construction alone, besides the work is done under the contract system, which, of course, greatly relieves the department of the engineer."

Al. Henderson said it was a fact that something would have to be done. He suggested that a sum appropriated for city hall works which were not going on should be handed over for this service.

Mayor Hall mentioned that the controller was getting out a report on the financial position for the streets, bridges and sewers committee, so it could see what funds there were to go on. There was no question that there must be some money to keep the streets clean.

Al. Cameron moved that the report be referred to the finance committee, and this was done.

Dr. Wasson will give another lecture this evening at 8 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. rooms to his pupils on "First Aids to the Injured."

The daily prayer meetings held at the Y. M. C. A. during the hours of 5 and 6 p.m., in connection with the International Y. M. C. A. movement, are being largely attended. R. C. Horn, vice-president of the Y. M. C. A., will lead the meeting this evening, and W. B. Fisher will lead to-morrow's meeting.

The funeral of the late Charles James Young took place yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the residence of his sister, Mrs. E. J. Monk, Chamber street, where an impressive service was conducted by Rev. W. Leslie Clay. There was a large attendance of friends, present and many beautiful floral offerings were sent. The following acted as pallbearers: W. Appleton, A. Wale, F. Richardson, W. Williams, W. H. Pennick and A. Rey.

YOUNG LIBERALS ORGANIZING.

Many Will Join Association Now Being Formed at New Westminster.

New Westminster, Nov. 10.—Good progress is being made in the preparatory work in connection with the starting of a Young Liberal Association in this city, a large number of young men having signified their willingness to identify themselves with the organization.

In addition to being identified with the party which has always stood for progress and development in Canada, the members who join the association will have privileges seldom enjoyed by a young organization, including among these being a splendid club room, a small committee room, the use of two billiard tables, and abundance of reading matter, the headquarters being at the Liberal club.

EASILY PREPARED MIX-TURE FOR KIDNEY TROUBLE OR RHEUMATISM

Here is a prescription that anyone can mix at home. Any good prescription pharmacy can supply the ingredients named at little cost; being composed of vegetable extracts, it is harmless and inexpensive. Best of all it does its work well, relieving even the worst forms of kidney trouble, frequent urination, backache, kidney complaint, and by its direct action upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys, makes these most vital organs rid the blood and system of waste matter and uric acid which causes rheumatism.

Here it is: try it, if you suffer. Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime.

Former sufferers often state that one week's use shows curative results in nearly every instance, and such symptoms as lame back, frequent desire to urinate, pain in bladder and even chronic rheumatism are generally relieved within a few days, the pain and swelling diminishing with each dose.

morrow night with Ed. Whyte, and there was talk in the city yesterday and to-day of putting in Saturday's team argued with a reserve of four men, the four who are wanted to fill up places now, and selecting another team also to represent Victoria.

Butterfield will probably take in hand one of the teams and act as trainer, while the other team will have a separate management altogether. With two teams Victoria will stand a good chance of making a close run for premier island honors. It is understood that two teams will be entered in name and that the managers will have time after getting their entries in to select the men they want for the teams.

The Island league meets on Saturday night at Nanaimo to form the schedule when a successor to Ed. Whyte will be selected as he has decided to retire.

Seattle Hopes Are High.

Seattle, Nov. 11.—Two victories for the Seattle United Soccer team over speedy rivals from British Columbia have sent the hopes of local enthusiasts for the Pacific coast championship soaring skyward.

Seattle now has some of the best soccer players in this part of the country, and the speed and accuracy with which they take the ball down the field, the excitement of the games and the science displayed, have given the association playing a firm hold in Seattle sports. The contests are witnessed by increasingly large crowds. The Seattle United team is now composed of the following:

SPEDDY WONDER IS FOUND BY BURNS

Will Bring Lightweight Boxer to America to Fight Nelson.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 11.—Another letter from Tommy Burns has reached Chicago and the heavyweight champion gives out some interesting news. Tommy says he has discovered a lightweight in Australia who has it on all the boys in this part of the country. He says he carries more speed than Attell, can hit harder than Lovinson, and is as clever as any lightweight this country has ever turned out. In short, he says he is a better man than Young Griffo.

Tommy says he will bring him over to America after the Johnson fight and will put him against Nelson or McFarland. Speaking of himself he says: "It may surprise you to know that I have grown since leaving America. I am now scaling at about 210 and expect to climb through the ropes at about 196 pounds. You will see the black man won't have much on me. Johnson has never had a man who could go up to him, and I am sure when he finds someone forcing him he is going to back up. I believe I have the strength and speed to keep pace with Johnson and to outgame and out-finish him at the end—Win or lose, I shall make a couple of good fights in America, and an extended theatrical appearance. Then will come retirement."

The following matches have yet to be played:

Nov. 15—Ladysmith vs. Nanaimo, Dec. 12—Victoria vs. Seattle, Dec. 13—Ladysmith vs. Seattle, Dec. 25—Nanaimo vs. Victoria, Jan. 1—Seattle vs. Victoria, Jan. 10—Nanaimo vs. Ladysmith, Jan. 17—Ladysmith vs. Vancouver, Jan. 23—Vancouver vs. Nanaimo.

TWO WHISTLES AT OAK BAY CONCUSE PLAYERS

Suggestion That Distinctive Sound Implements Be Used.

On Saturday last when Victoria was struck again by Nanaimo in the first half of the game at Oak Bay to avert defeat, there was considerable disturbance to the players and to the spectators on the ground by the blowing of a second whistle by the referee of the Scotch Rugby teams playing on the same ground. The playing of two whistles where the whistle is required on the same ground at the same time is disconcerting to the players and is a difficulty which should be handled by those in charge of the ground. A game can easily be won and lost at a critical moment by the advent of a second whistle on the field and when it comes to having a champion team playing against the local soccer men it would be advisable if another form of record was used by any second aggregation referee on the ground. It has been suggested that he borrow a motor horn, a bugle or some distinctive article of sound for recording his decisions so as not to interfere with the important game in progress.

It is true that W. Moroney did his best to keep the whistle on the Rugby game subdued and that its tone was not so shrill as that used by Rose, refereeing the soccer game. Nevertheless the two whistles more than once confused spectators and players alike. The matter can easily be overcome without disabling two games from being played, and it is not likely to occur again.

Both sections of sport have no wish other than to work together while there is a shortage of playing grounds in the city.

VICTORIA VS. SEATTLE.

Victoria is matched against Seattle in the first game in the B. C. Hockey union on Saturday next at Oak Bay. Victoria has for some time past been getting into condition and last Saturday put in some good work at Beacon Hill, where a final formal practice was held. Although Seattle is new to the league it is said that there is a strong team in that city and that they intend to make the pace in the league this year. The game at Oak Bay Saturday will commence at 3 p. m.

BASKETBALL.

SEASON OPENS SATURDAY.

The Coast Basketball league opens its season on Saturday at Seattle, when the team of that city plays Everett. Victoria is down for the first game here against Bellingham on November 20th. In view of the approach of the latter date Victoria is beginning to get together a team to welcome the visitors.

LIBERALS MAY FORM DISTRICT ASSOCIATIONS

Organizations in Alberni Riding Are in Favor of Proposal.

(Special Correspondence.)

Clayoquot, Nov. 6.—At the general meeting of the Clayoquot Liberal Association, held here on October 31st, and adjourned until November 2nd, many matters of local interest came up, the meeting being largely attended. Eleven new members joined the association, making it, as H. C. Brewster, who was present, remarked, the strongest in the Alberni riding. The matter of a district association for Alberni came up, and Mr. Brewster, who had been in correspondence with the different associations, was asked to inform the association how the matter stood. Mr. Brewster said that he had received favorable reports from some associations. Alberni association will take up the matter at the next general meeting. As the feeling in the Clayoquot association is strongly in favor of the move, a district organization, with Alberni for the meeting place, probably will be formed. The Clayoquot association has been using the Clayoquot school for the last year for their meetings, and donated $10 to the trustees and a rental of $2 for every meeting will be paid hereafter. After some further matters had been discussed the following resolution was put and enthusiastically endorsed by the meeting: "That Mr. Brewster be tendered by this association a very hearty vote of thanks for the interest he has taken in the matters of this district, and that we, the Liberals of Clayoquot, promise him our unanimous support in any matter of public interest he may undertake." Mr. Brewster in a few words, thanked the association for their endorsement, saying how glad he was having been enabled to be with them. After a motion welcoming the president, Mr. Chesterton, back to the chair again, the vice-president, Mr. Stone, having presided the most of the year, the meeting adjourned till the next general meeting at the end of November.

Clayoquot has just had four days of the heaviest rain and wind experienced for some time.

A very pleasant dance was given by Mr. and Mrs. Macdonald at the Moccquito Harbor mill on Friday night. The dance marked the completion of the repairs to the wharf, etc., at which men have been working for about a month. More than thirty people were present, and all spent an enjoyable time.

The Clayoquot cannery has closed down for the season, the steamer Tees taking the balance of the pack, which was between 5,000 and 6,000 cases.

ACCUSE POUNDKEEPER OF NEGLECTING DUTY

Aldermen Say They Have Received Numerous Complaints.

The ears of Poundkeeper W. H. Craig must have tingled about ten o'clock last evening. At that time the city council was discussing his manner of fulfilling his duties, and a couple of the aldermen spoke pretty plainly. At the end the Mayor was left to deal with him, and to intimate that if he does not improve more cows—bad especially if he does not catch some dogs—he will be in an awkward position.

Ald. Mable complained that a great many cattle were straying on streets, inside the limits, coming in from outside. Citizens had endeavored to get the poundkeeper, but in vain, and he had a number of letters of complaint. He did not say the poundkeeper was not doing his duty, but there was no doubt that city streets were pestered with animals from outside. He advocated making the pound fee for cattle $5 and having a sliding scale of something like $9 for a second case, $15 for a third and so on. Ald. Mable warned the council that this matter must be faced and thrashed out some time.

"There is no use in having by-laws unless they are enforced," said Ald. Hall, author of the dog clauses of the pound by-law. "I see just as many dogs as ever on the streets. I understand the new pound by-law is in full force so far as concerns dogs which are not tagged, but the poundkeeper is making no efforts to catch dogs without tags, although you can see them on Government street every day. He will have to be brought up with a sound turn."

"I know he is impounding cattle all the time, and has one to be sold to-morrow afternoon if it is not claimed," said the Mayor.

"And I know he has had no dogs at the pound for a long time," Ald. Hall declared with emphasis.

The Mayor remarked that at this season of the year straggled dogs were generally weeded out, and not many found their way to the pound.

Aldermen Mable and Hall are quite right," said Ald. Cameron. "Our poundkeeper is not doing his duty. In my opinion, he is not a satisfactory man, and he seems to be of the notion that he won't catch dogs. He is getting a big salary, an assistant, horses and wagons, and a percentage on dogs, and everything else he wants, and still he won't catch dogs. I do not know about cows, but dogs are still running about the streets. You can see them on Government or any other street without any tag on, and many without even a collar. This council should put it up to Mr. Poundkeeper to do his duty or quit his job."

Ald. Henderson suggested that as the new by-law was only recently passed the poundkeeper might not be aware it was in force.

Mayor Hall pointed out to him that it was the matter of unlicensed dogs which was in question, and in reply to Ald. Mable's complaint that the man refused to go out, saying he paid no attention to dogs, stated that he would see that he attended to his duties and went out.

Ald. Cameron stated that the people of James Bay had telephoned to the poundkeeper till they got tired, and then telephoned to him as their representative. He called up the poundkeeper and told him that dogs had to be attended to. The result was that the official went around in a wicker-wheeled kind of wag for a week and caught one dog.

He should attend to the requests of citizens, and understand that he had to do so without waiting for an alderman to stir him up.

On motion of Ald. Henderson, the matter was left in the hands of the Mayor.

His Worship said he would see that cows were kept off the streets.

"And don't forget the dogs," Ald. Cameron reminded him.

"Congratulations are in order and well they are merited."

STRIKE RICH LEAD.

Vein in McAllister Group in the Kootenay, Cut Into.

Kaslo, Nov. 10.—It is reported that the rich lead in the McAllister group, near Three Forks, has been cut into. This property was leased and bonded about three years ago by W. G. Clark, Wm. Bennett and a few more Sandonites. About a year ago, some rich ore was struck, a carload of which netted about $8,000 smelter returns, enabling the lessees to pay off the bond.

A cross-cut tunnel to tap the vein lower down was commenced two summers ago and continued this season, culminating in success a few days ago. The McAllister comprises a group of dry ore mineral claims up the north fork of Carpenter creek. The ore runs high in silver and is similar in character and values to the Cobalt strikes. Before the present owners got a hold of it the property was worked in conjunction with the Bruce 472, by Messrs. Hunter and Fairburn of Silverton. They shipped steadily all one summer, when the close down occurs.

E. LEFFINGWELL HAS RETURNED

EXPLORER TELLS OF WORK IN THE NORTH

He Will Go Back to the Arctic Again Next Year.

Ernest Leffingwell, the Arctic explorer, who in company with Einar Mikkelsen planned the Anglo-American expedition which left here in May, 1906, has returned from the North. He is the last of the party that set out on the Duchess of Bedford to return.

Leffingwell remained throughout the whole of two years alone in camp on the desolate shore of Flaxman Island, except for the companionship of two Eskimo families, and now back with the satisfaction of having made a success of his undertaking, though the original scheme of the expedition was not entirely successful because of shipwreck and other adverse conditions. To his credit, with the geographical societies of the world will be placed the discovery and mapping of three rivers of the extreme northern part of Alaska, running into the Arctic from the south, to the eastward of Point Barrow and not many days travel apart. These rivers are the Kogruk, draining a territory from the Yukon divide to the Arctic, and about 150 miles in length; the Hula-Hula, of about the same description, to the eastward of the Kogruk, and the Okpekal, also somewhat similar to the others, farther to the east.

The name Hula-Hula, given by the natives, was borrowed from sailors at Flaxman Island.

Fossils and furs, pelts of polar bears he has killed on his excursions in the desolate wilderness of ice and wind-swept land and a number of specimens of the mineral deposits of farthest Alaska are brought back by Leffingwell, in addition to a mass of data that will go to swell the memoranda of the Chicago University and furnish material for the articles he intends to write on his explorations. The explorer took pictures as he went along and his collection is considered the best that has ever come out of the Arctic. Many of these views were taken on the wonderful expedition made by Leffingwell and Mikkelsen and a young mate, Neil Storgersen, over the jagged ice fields more than 100 miles directly north of Flaxman Island into a region never traversed by man. The object of this two months' rough trip was to find new land and make soundings.

In clefts of ice so thick that it appeared to be mountainous, soundings were made to depths of the ocean 300 fathoms down. Time and again such soundings were made, the undertaking being sometimes attended by danger, and always it was the same—300 fathoms, or thereabouts, and this, to Capt. Mikkelsen and Geologist Leffingwell, was proof that there was neither land nor new continent within a wide range of their position.

In a laborious manner, zigzagging back and forth, travelling in every direction but always forging to the northward, until the latitude of 72 degrees was left behind, the three men toiled, but always with the same result—deep soundings and no indication of land or submarine shelf within hundreds of miles. Only the open sea, stretching away to the westward caused them to retrace their steps. So they drove back, inch by inch, through the harrowing ice and fierce storms, reaching the camp at Flaxman Island with two weeks' supplies left on the sleds.

Then the explorers found that their schooner, the Duchess of Bedford, was a total wreck, though all hands of the crew had been saved. The schooner had set in to leak soon after the explorers left on their expedition over the ice, and the crew, after saving everything of value aboard, camped nearby on the shore and fared well. But the loss of the schooner changed the plans of the scientists for traversing the open waters, and rendered their chances of getting out of the desolate regions somewhat problematical. Speaking of his experiences, Leffingwell said:

"It was in March of 1907 that we started out on that two months' trip over the ice to the northward, searching for land. But everywhere we sounded—it was not every day that we had the opportunity—we obtained such great depths that we did not consider it advisable to venture farther for land in that direction. Most islands along the mainland rise from a shelf seldom deeper than 100 fathoms, and everywhere we sounded we found more than 200 fathoms. It was a new territory

TARIFF REDUCTION ON

FLOUR TO HONGKONG

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 11.—There was an unexpected turn in the Oriental rates yesterday when W. B. Benson, agent for the trans-Pacific tariff bureau, announced that the rate on flour to Hongkong had been reduced from $1.50 to $1.25 per ton of two thousand pounds. This change is to take effect at once.

It is understood the sudden action was taken at the request of the Puget Sound millers. The millers have been aroused by heavy shipments of flour from Portland, while the movement from Puget Sound has been extremely light for months. That the millers suspect their competitors on the Columbia river are getting some unfair advantage is an open secret. It has been intimated that rates on flour are being secretly cut from Portland. This schedule applies from Seattle, Tacoma, Everett, Victoria, Vancouver, New Westminster, Astoria and Portland.

The lines which are parties to the tariff agreement are the Canadian Pacific, the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, the Portland and Asiatic Steamship Company, the China Mutual Ocean Steamship Company, the Great Northern Steamship Company, and the West Steamship Lines.

ADVERSE WINDS

DELAYED HALEWOOD

Sixty Days Taken in Making Galapagos From Panama.

It was a pretty sight yesterday to see the two ships Halewood and Arramoon pass up the straits towed by one tug and both with their sails set. The Halewood had experienced very severe weather and she certainly looked weatherworn. Every bit of paint had disappeared and near the water's edge sea weeds and barnacles could be noticed. The ship took sixty days to make the Galapagos Islands from Panama and then adverse winds made the voyage stretch out another fifty days, an extremely long time to take in covering so short a distance. By the time she arrived here her food supply was pretty nearly exhausted and her captain and crew were glad to be once more within reach of a butcher's shop. Two of the sailors of the Halewood died during the voyage.

The Arramoon also experienced bad weather but she made a much longer voyage, from Acapulco, in a much shorter time, being in all 62 days out.

Both vessels found it difficult to enter the Straits and were much delayed outside of Plattery. They arrived in the roads late yesterday afternoon and are awaiting orders. The vessels have not been chartered as yet.

SHEARWATER LEAVES ON LONG CRUISE

Sloop of War Expected to Remain Away Until April.

After a number of unavoidable delays the British sloop of war Shearwater steamed out of Esquimalt harbor bound on her long cruise to the South seas. Her first port of call is expected to be San Diego. From there she will go to Acapulco, and at Callao she will wait for H. M. S. Algerine, which is expected to leave Esquimalt on the 20th instant. The two vessels will then proceed south, and later will visit the islands of the Pacific and probably may go as far as Australia, returning to Esquimalt somewhere about next April.

There are still some of the men of the Shearwater who have not returned to England. They will leave on Friday next.

The Egeria is not expected to be in port for a week or two next.

The time of Magistrate Jay was taken up in police court this morning largely with a charge of theft laid against Albert, a Nootka Indian, by Mrs. Catherine Peter. Albert was accused of stealing $1.50 in money, a gold-plated pin worth $2.50 and some clothing. R. C. Lowe represented the complainant. The evidence was lengthy and at the conclusion His Worship decided that it would not warrant a conviction and dismissed the case. Albert's troubles were not over by any means, however, and this afternoon he is languishing in jail, awaiting trial on a charge of supplying whiskey to Mrs. Peter. He will be brought up to-morrow.

A MOTHER'S HAPPY THOUGHT.
A lady writing from Ireland says—"I went to see my sister's baby, who was very ill indeed. She had been up for nights with him without undressing; he was crying all the time as with some internal pain.
The doctor told her he could do nothing except put him in a warm bath, which gave him a little ease for the time being."
"I thought of STEEDMAN'S SOOTHING POWDERS which I used for my own children; and next day
I sent some to my sister, when she gave the child half a powder according to directions. For the first time for four days the baby, and, in fact, all

PSYCHINE SAVED THIS LADY'S LIFE
This statement is no fiction, for Mrs. L. Garalde resides at 800 York Street, London, Ont., and to use her own words is: "Always happy to reply to anxious enquirers and let them know what PSYCHINE has done for me."
Four years ago, Mrs. Garalde wrote: "Your remedy, PSYCHINE, did wonders for me. I was about 28 or 30 years of age when I took your treatment. I was in consumption and the very best doctors told me there was not a single else that could be done, (this was 20 years ago) so as a last hope I gave your remedies a trial. From the first this was a most wonderful success. PSYCHINE certainly gave me new lungs, and I honestly believe PSYCHINE saved my life." Writing four years after under date August 7, 1938, Mrs. Garalde says: "My statement still holds good, my lungs never troubled me after your treatment which I took after being told there was no hope."
PSYCHINE, Dr. Slocum's great Health Remedy, is known everywhere as Nature's Greatest Tonic, building up the entire system, not only rendering it proof against the terrible germ and other diseases, that are so deadly in their operation, but it is the sworn and deadly foe of the germs and the diseases themselves. Bacilli, or disease germs, cannot survive in the system of a person who has taken PSYCHINE. Send for FREE TRIAL NOTICE. See coupon.

ASTRO MAY GO TO EUROPE.
Caracas, Venezuela, Nov. 9, via Wilhelmstad, Nov. 10.—President Castro has been advised by his physicians to go to Europe for the purpose of getting medical treatment "or the malady from which he has been suffering recently. Whether he follows the advice or not depends upon the progress he makes toward recovery and his friends do not believe that such a step will be necessary."
—The case of Black vs. Anderson, which has been hanging fire for some months in the County court, has at last been set down for hearing, the date fixed this morning being December 9th

DR. BELL BUILDS BIGGEST AERODROME
New Machine Which Contains
5,000 Tetrahedral Cells—
To Be Tested Soon.
Halifax, N. S., Nov. 10.—W. F. Bell, win, chief of laboratories for Dr. Alex.
Graham Bell, at Belton, Breckin, Cape
Breton, states that experts at Belton Breckin have been busy all summer building a new aerodrome, which will be ready to make a flight about the middle of this month.
The new aerodrome is built on the same model as the Sygnot, which successfully carried Lieut. Seifridge in December of last year.
The new machine will contain approximately 5,000 tetrahedral cells, being about half as big again as anything previously attempted by Dr. Bell.
It is expected that it will experience a little difficulty in lifting the combined weight of engine and man as the Sygnot did in lifting a man alone last year.
Dr. Bell is practically certain that the forthcoming trial will prove a success.
The aviator to make the flight in the tetrahedral aerodrome, has not yet been selected.

USEFUL CAREER.
Robert Melvin Removes Important
Many in the West as well as in the East will regret to learn of the death of Robert Melvin, at Hamilton, some time ago, at the ripe age of eighty years. In company with Mr. Wegman, managing director, and Mr. Clement, first vice-president, of the Mutual Life Assurance Company of Canada, Waterloo, Ont., of which he was president,
Mr. Melvin had been on a trip to New York in the interests of the company, and on the way home he took suddenly ill on the train as it was nearing Hamilton and was not able to continue his journey home. He was conveyed to the Waldorf hotel, Hamilton, but notwithstanding the skill of the physician in attendance he gradually became weaker, and died at 11 o'clock the same evening from heart failure. Faithful to the last in the discharge of his duties, it may be truly said of him that "he died in harness," serving the company whose welfare and prosperity he had always so deeply at heart.
Previous to his retirement from business in 1871, Mr. Melvin was for twenty-two years a successful hardware merchant, founder, and agricultural implement manufacturer in Guelph, for whose council board he was elected in 1859. In 1875 he became mayor.

Mr. Melvin was widely known by his connection with the Mutual Life of Canada, in whose success he always took a deep concern. He was one of its provisional policy holders and was appointed by the board a director of the company, and served continuously on the board until his death. He was elected vice-president in 1871, and upon the death of its first president, I. E.
Bowman, in 1897, Mr. Melvin succeeded to the presidency, in which responsible position he has served the company with distinguished ability. He was a man of broad and progressive judgment and matured experience and, in the investment of the company's funds,
as well as in other important respects,
Mr. Melvin has, during the past thirty-eight years, rendered invaluable service to the company. He regarded the funds of the company as a sacred trust for the policy holders, the widow and orphan, whose interests he at all times endeavored to promote and conserve to the utmost of his abilities.
The directors met at the head office,
Waterloo, Ont., following the death, when E. P. Clement, K.C., Berlin, was elected president; F. C. Bruce, Hamilton, first vice-president, and J. Kerr Fisher, Toronto, second vice-president of the company.
—The usual monthly meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of St. Paul's church, Victoria West, took place at the residence of Capt. and Mrs. Jacobsen, Head street, on Tuesday afternoon.
After the disposal of ordinary business
the opportunity was taken of signalizing the twentieth anniversary of Captain and Mrs. Jacobsen's marriage by the presentation by Mrs. Dodds, the president, on behalf of the society, to Mrs. Jacobsen of a handsome china tea set, which she suitably acknowledged. The members of the society were then invited to repair to the dining room where they were treated to a sumptuous repast, upwards of fifty being seated around the tables.
The room was artistically adorned with flowers, evergreens and autumn follage. The president moved a vote of thanks for Mrs. Jacobsen and all showed their appreciation by a standing vote.

THREE SQUAMISH SETTLERS MISSING
Are Believed to Have Lost Their Lives in the Flood.
Vancouver, Nov. 10.—Wm. Lewis, who arrived to-night from the Squamish river, thirty miles north of Vancouver, says that in last week's flood the water rose twenty-five feet in a single night.
Several thousands of dollars' worth of cattle were drowned, and the deaths of at least three settlers are probable, for no news has been heard of them since the flood.
Three bridges across the stream were washed out. Last night several cattle loads of Indians paddled up to the doors of Lewis' home, as they had been driven out of their homes on the lower land.
—Some boys who have been robbing
chicken roosts were tried by Magistrate Jay in the children's court this morning. They were let off after receiving a severe lecture, which included the parents.

MARGUERITE PETALS

Harper's Monthly for November contains a very graphic sketch, "A Hero of Inverness," in which the story of the battle is told by an Irish veteran, Charles Patrick Conway.

Among many other things, he says: "It was a battle of many hours in the mist and rain."

"It was a battle of close fighting, of much hand-to-hand fighting, of man to man."

TIMELY RECIPES

Fried Sweetbreads.—Soak a pair of large sweetbreads in cold water for three hours, changing the water two or three times, then blanch them for five minutes in boiling water, and rinse in cold water. Brizzle the sweetbreads with salt and pepper, and some good oil, and fry for three-quarters of an hour, then press them between two flat plates, with a weight on the top, until they are cold. Cut the sweetbreads into rounds of a convenient size and moderate thickness, then dust them lightly with flour, and fry in a hot oil.

Sole à la Reine.—Cut some fillets of sole into fairly narrow strips, roll them up neatly, and pack closely into a buttered dish. Make a sauce with two ounces of butter, and two ounces of flour (cooked together for a few minutes), a gill of finely flavored fish broth, a gill of oyster liquor, and half a pint of melted cream, and when it has thickened season with salt and pepper, and add two tablespoonsful of grated Parmesan cheese and one dozen oysters cut into small pieces. Pour the sauce over the fillets, place a buttered paper over the top, and cook in a moderately hot oven for half an hour. Care should be taken that the sauce does not boil. The last thing before the fish is served, scatter a little finely chopped parsley over the surface of the sauce.

Cheese Creams.—Whip half a pint of cream until it is quite stiff, add three oz. of grated Parmesan cheese and one oz. of Gruyere. Season with celery salt and Neapoli pepper, and add a quarter of a pint of nicely flavored aspic jelly which is cool but still liquid; whisk the mixture for a few minutes, then fill jelly cups with it, taking care to make the surface perfectly smooth. Have ready some very fine strips of filleted anchovy of equal length; place four on the top of each little cream, so that they represent the shape of a star-fish, and between the stripes (over the surface of the cream) scatter alternately, a little powdered parsley and coraline pepper, and put the creams into a cold place for two or three hours before serving.

THE EMPRESS.

A splendid programme at the Empress theatre will close to-night. As usual there was the children's five-cent matinee this afternoon and the usual show this evening from 7 to 10.30. The pictures, which will be presented for the last time to-night, are as follows:

Under the Sea in a Submarine; Across the Mountains of La Cere, France; Weary Willy Wants to Go to Prison; Uncle's Rejected Present; The Burglar in the Basket; Wanted, a Colored Servant.

Hervig A. Bell gives an illustrated song, "When Night Falls, Dear," which has won high praise.

There will be an entire change of programme to-morrow.

BURN MONTOSH MONTHLY.

The cover of the November number of Burn Montosh Monthly is a reproduction in full colors of a water color painting by one of the leading American artists, William J. Whittmore, having been shown at a recent exhibition of the American Water Color Society, where it received an unusual amount of commendation.

The contents of the November number are unusually attractive and cannot fail to please any one interested in pictures. In this issue the state of California is dealt with, being the third state in the series on the "States of the Union," and the article is profusely and beautifully illustrated. Among the portraits are such well-known actresses as Lillian Russell, Gertrude Coghlan, etc. In this issue are also portraits of Geo. Arliss and Edwin Stevens, both of whom are playing in "The Devil," the popular play now running in two theatres in New York. A study in red shows the famous dancer Mlle. Genee, and there are several color panels suggestive of Thanksgiving Day.

UNHEALTHY WOMEN

LOSE COLOR, CONSTANTLY WEARY, LOOK WRINKLED, HOLLOW.

They All Get Health—Vitality—Vim Strength from Ferrozone.

Once you use the celebrated nerve vitalizer and tonic, Ferrozone—once you feel its magic powers, working through your weakened system—then you'll know for sure that health at last awaits you.

So much quicker and surer is Ferrozone to rebuild and restore that thousands use it as their only medicine.

"Because I am now well," writes Miss L. P. Sinclair, from Sault Ste. Marie, "I feel it my duty to tell every young woman what benefit I got from Ferrozone. I grew very thin, and at twenty-five years old my face was hollow and wrinkled—my color was bad and I looked ten years beyond my age. I was nervous and hysterical, couldn't sleep, had no appetite, burst into tears at the least provocation. Then I worried, feared I would go into decline, and was so depressed every morning that life was no longer happy."

"I was astonished at the quick and thorough action of Ferrozone. It gave me permanent strength and vitality, nervous fears disappeared, indigestion and stomach weakness were cured. Sound sleep returned. I looked better and younger, had clear color. I gained in weight, felt happy, vigorous, strong. It is a year since I first took Ferrozone. It has restored me to health. I never knew before and I will continue to recommend it as the grandest tonic and strengthener on earth."

Very few girls and women are so abundant in health as to not require medicine. Nothing excels Ferrozone in supplying strength, blood and nerve power. Not a stimulant, but a nourishing tonic is Ferrozone. 50c. per box or six boxes for $2.50 at all dealers. Try Ferrozone. Do it to-day.

ALBANY RITCHIE.

Victorians Will Have Opportunity of Hearing Artist Before He Goes on Tour.

The box office for Albany Ritchie's recital at the Victoria theatre next Saturday will be open at 10 a. m. to-morrow. The prices for this concert have been arranged at $1.50 and $1. for the reserved seats and $2 for the boxes. The greatest interest has been aroused in the musical circles by the announcement that Mr. Ritchie would appear before a Victoria audience before his departure for his tour under the management of Ernest Goodell, of New York. Mr. Goodell was manager of the Metropolitan opera for fourteen years and now has the sole management of many of the leading artists, including Caruso, Sembrich, Farrar and others, and the fact of Mr. Ritchie's securing a five years' engagement from so prominent a man in the musical world is a great triumph for that rising young artist. His many friends in Victoria will watch with keen interest his career and the sincere thanks of the musical public is due to the Victoria Musical Society for affording this opportunity of hearing him before his departure.

The Daily Record of Dresden, referring to Mr. Ritchie's appearance in that city on January 18th, says: "England has not been very fruitful in the production of great violinists, and it was therefore all the more astonishing when Herr Albany Ritchie presented himself last year to the Dresden public as an artist of the right sort, of very reliable ability and sterling earnest taste."

What he then promised, he has fulfilled. His ability is more matured and his power of artistic presentation has become more certain. That was evidenced on this occasion in an eminent degree by his very impressive and plastic rendering of Bach's Claconna, which he played with a mastery such as we may expect only from the best exponents of violin-playing. In Mendelssohn's Violin Concerto, the young artist marked his performance in the second movement by taking the leading melody too restlessly, but the impression thus made was soon forgotten in the enjoyment of the subtle clearness with which he played the last movement. The audience applauded him so heartily that he had to play no less than four encores."

BETTER TERMS AND ASIATIC EXCLUSION

Interprovincial and Imperial Questions Respectively—Hon. W. Scott Delivers Statesmanlike Speech Before Electors of Yale-Cariboo.

(Special Correspondence.)
Summerland, Nov. 7.—Addressing a large and enthusiastic meeting here in behalf of Duncan Ross' candidature, Premier Walter Scott, of Saskatchewan, was heartily received. In a speech covering an hour and three-quarters, Premier Scott held the closest attention of his audience. His main theme was the subject of transportation and he proved conclusively that if British Columbia wants freedom in railway facilities instead of railway monopoly and oppression it is only from the Liberal party that they can expect to obtain what they want. He showed how Duncan Ross had been a leader in the battle for Ottawa against railway monopoly, and how the Liberal government had already done much in the way of lessening the evils of monopoly by providing and encouraging strong competing lines of communication.

Before taking up the transportation question, Premier Scott dealt briefly with two questions of acute local interest in British Columbia. He said in part: "There are two subjects which I wish to refer to briefly. Speaking to the British Columbia audience I should believe myself guilty did I fail to express the views I hold on these subjects. The Conservative leader, Mr. Borden, on his visit to British Columbia last year, took pronounced ground on two subjects. He promised to upset the work of the interprovincial subsidies conference of 1906, and he advocated the cancellation of the Japanese treaty. My opinions on these two matters may not accord with your opinions, but I wish you to know what my views are."

"I took part in the Ottawa conference which resulted in a new and better railway basis being adopted to govern the annual subsidies paid by the Dominion to the provinces. The arrangement was accepted by the Dominion government on joint request of all the provinces and the Imperial parliament amended the B. N. A. Act to make it effective. It is a bargain between the provinces. If Sir Wilfrid Laurier now proposed to touch that arrangement without first consulting the provincial governments who made the bargain, he would be doing something wholly improper. Is not the same true of Mr. Borden? As one who joined in the bargain, representing one province, I say Mr. Borden's British Columbia promise to disturb that interprovincial bargain merits severe condemnation. In making the promise which he made to you in this province, Mr. Borden entered a sphere in which he has no place. His promise was presumptuous and impudent, and amounted to an insult to every other province whose premier sat in the conference and joined in and approved the action that was there taken. In so far as Mr. Borden's promise excited a hope in your minds it was a false promise because such hope must prove a vain hope. Because his promise was calculated to make you feel dissatisfied with the action of the interprovincial conference, I cannot view Mr. Borden's spirit in making it other than as unpatriotic and statesmanlike. The statesman and the patriot seeks to quell dissatisfaction, not to provoke it, but Mr. Borden did his utmost to breed dissatisfaction in your minds, by exciting you to hope for a result which he knew could not be gained. Weigh this statement carefully because it is the fact, the proper and the only final authority on the subsidy settlement, was and is the interprovincial conference. No other authority can supersede its decision. The Dominion government cannot do it. The Imperial government cannot do it. Your premier, Mr. McBride, was within his rights in appealing in the conference for special allowances. He exceeded his right and he acted foolishly when he appealed from the conference first to the Dominion government because the conference was and ought to be the final authority in the matter. Nova Scotia can only draw such subsidies as British Columbia, Manitoba and Ontario have agreed to. By the same reasoning you in British Columbia can only draw such subsidies as Ontario, Nova Scotia and Manitoba have agreed to."

"A good deal has been heard of autonomy and provincial rights recently; indeed, the Liberal party in my province had to contend against a so-called Provincial Rights party. When Mr. McBride went to London to ask the Imperial government to override the action of the Canadian interprovincial conference in a matter of purely interprovincial concern, he exhibited mighty little respect for provincial rights, and Mr. R. L. Borden in his promise given this province of British Columbia that he would upset and disturb what had been done by the provinces of Canada conjointly, was exhibiting the same scant respect for the principle of provincial rights, which perhaps will help you to understand why the Tory pretence of love for provincial rights as affecting Saskatchewan and Alberta is so little appreciated because it is merely a pretence and an insincere, just as Mr. Borden's British Columbia promise on the subsidy question was manifestly insincere. It was a promise which Mr. Borden had no right to make, which he could not carry out, and his only purpose in making it must necessarily have been the unpatriotic purpose of fomenting discontent and breeding agitation."

Borden's Insincerity.
"To find the measure of Mr. Borden's insincerity in this matter all you need do is to listen to what he said to Saskatchewan. You know Mr. McBride's claim for additional allowances for British Columbia was partially based on Saskatchewan's subsidy. He argued that my province enjoyed better terms relatively than British Columbia. But what does Mr. Borden say to Saskatchewan and Alberta? He says those provinces are not as well treated as British Columbia and the older provinces, and that by the autonomy acts of 1905 we in Alberta and Saskatchewan were robbed of our rights and our patrimony. Trying to sow seeds of discontent down there the same as here. But the prairie provinces have not been deluded by the petty politician's trick played by Mr. Borden.

"At this time I am not going to argue Mr. McBride's claim for better terms. Take it for granted that the claim is just and ought to be conceded. The point is that neither the Imperial nor the Dominion authorities are capable of conceding the claim. Premiers Whitney and Roblin and Hazen and the other provincial premiers are the men who can do it and no other authority can do it. Your 'better terms' claim, therefore, is not an issue in this election contest between Liberals and Conservatives, but Mr. Borden's presumptuous and impudent interference deserves censure, as insincerity and false promises always deserve censure. And do not forget this fact—I was present and know it to be the fact—that the additional grant of $100,000 a year for ten years that British Columbia did obtain by the agreement of the premiers' conference was not got for you by Mr. Whitney or the Conservative premiers there. Mr. Whitney was not at all favorable to it. In reality, Mr. Fielding is the man to thank for it. Mr. Whitney, Ontario's Tory premier, gave a very reluctant consent, and the only really harsh language used regarding Mr. McBride's position was that used by Mr. Whitney, who held that British Columbia ought to be content with the same grants which the other provinces were asking, and he denounced Mr. McBride's conduct in very severe terms. The action of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Fielding in adopting the joint recommendation to pay $1,000,000 additional to British Columbia justifies the belief that if the amount recommended had been larger they would have paid the larger amount. They admitted it to be a question for decision by the conference because the subsidies arrangement is a main part of the financial compact or constitution, binding the nine provinces into a united Canada. In the conference the British Columbia question was not one between Liberals and Conservatives, and it can not properly be a question between the political parties here, further than that Mr. Borden's unwarranted suggestion ought to be condemned."

The Japanese Problem.
"As bearing on the other subject, that relating to Japanese immigration, let me first quote a couple of sentences from Lord Milner's speech last week at Toronto. Lord Milner said: 'Citizenship of the Empire is an immense privilege, and discussing the means of promoting the Empire's unity he said: "We must arrive at the best system by actually practicing co-operation with the instruments ready to our hand and on the problems immediately before us." "Surely we are all agreed on the first statement. We all want to continue to live and develop under the British flag and British institutions, and as part of the British Empire. Beyond the sentimental bond which is strong, surely I do not need to argue that our membership in the world's greatest Empire brings us immense material advantage. Lord Milner's words are literally true. "An immense privilege." Now it is equally true that the possession of privilege always entails responsibility. "As to the advisability, nay the necessity of stopping and for the future excluding Japanese immigration from British Columbia there is no longer any difference of opinion. Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Borden are, at one on the main question. The method was the only question in dispute."

An Imperial Problem.
"Please revert to Lord Milner's second statement. We must arrive at the best system by actually practicing co-operation on the problems immediately before us. The system he means is one to safeguard Imperial unity. Does any one deny that this Japanese immigration problem was an Imperial problem?"
"The Ottawa Journal, a Conservative paper, commenting on Hon. Mr. Templeman's defeat in Victoria, says: "Mr. Templeman succumbed in defence of an Imperial policy," and declares that in this case of the Japanese problem the Ottawa government acted practically under instructions from his home (Imperial) authorities. I hesitate to believe the latter statement, but nobody can doubt that owing to Britain's relations and alliance with Japan the British government could not fail to be acutely interested in and affected by the settlement of the Japanese immigration problem in this province. The question was undoubtedly an Imperial question and I ask you was it Sir Wilfrid Laurier or Mr. Borden whose upon this vexed problem displayed a proper sense of Canada's Imperial responsibilities? In this matter was it Sir Wilfrid Laurier or Mr. Borden who exhibited the patience and calm temper of the statesman? Was it Sir Wilfrid Laurier or Mr. Borden who best fulfilled the duty devolving upon a Canadian public man according to Lord Milner, who says that to promote Imperial unity we must actually practice co-operation on immediate problems? Was it Sir Wilfrid Laurier or Mr. Borden who in the case of this admittedly Imperial problem followed a course of actual co-operation?"

"Do you admit your British citizenship to be an immense privilege and an immense advantage? If you do, then are you going to deny your consequent responsibility towards the Empire? Does an honest man deny his debts? Is it true that Hon. William Templeman has gone down to defeat in the ultra-English city of Victoria for the crime of courageous loyalty to the interests of the British Empire? Is a Tory journal which says so, if it is true, a shameful slur upon the city of Victoria. And I say shame upon Mr. R. L. Borden for the utter disregard of the interests of the British Empire which he revealed in his attitude on this Japanese question. Yes, much greater shame. I can admit some excuse for the British Columbia people if, indeed, and threatened as you were by Chinese, Jap and Hindu, threatened by a genuine peril, you did fight for the moment in the immediate stress and menace of the situation of the wide Imperial problem involved and demanded speedy and drastic action to stop the invasion. But no such excuse can be admitted for the political leader who sought to make use of your stress and danger for his own petty political advantage which Mr. Borden plainly did. That is exactly what he did.

Borden Sought Party Gain.
"In this matter just as in the provincial subsidies matter, Mr. Borden deliberately cast from him the part of the patriot and statesman, the part of the careful and responsible public man anxious to heal discord and allay discontent, and he assumed to his lasting discredit and to the lasting discredit of the party which he leads and which was led in days gone by with very different aims and different success by Sir John Macdonald, Sir John Thompson, Sir Mackenzie Bowell and Sir Charles Tupper, the part of the small-bore and scheming politician. I charge Mr. Borden in this Japanese exclusion matter with having for expected party gain, led a course which could not be followed without endangering Imperial interest, without imperilling Britain's relations with Japan, and without in the end damaging the Empire, which includes Canada and British Columbia in its every part. I charge him with playing the part of the cheap demagogue and agitator."

"What a contrast with Sir Wilfrid Laurier's course! Sir Wilfrid, with very little delay, with calmness, with patience, always with keen appreciation of your grievance and your danger, but always with a sense of Canada's responsibility as a partner in the Empire, with not so much a debt to pay as a duty to perform towards both the Empire as a whole and towards Canada itself by actually co-operating on immediate problems, Laurier, the statesman, accomplished the end aimed at. The danger is removed not only as regards the Jap but the Hindu as well."

"I was in London at the time when Mr. Lemieux's mission to Japan terminated successfully. The London Times commented on Sir Wilfrid Laurier's statesmanship as exhibited in the matter in terms of highest praise. It was my good fortune to meet a number of the British public men, one and all of whom expressed appreciation of the careful and successful course of the Canadian prime minister in a way which made me prouder than ever of the fact that I was a Canadian and a follower and supporter of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. But can I believe my ears and eyes? Can it be true what I hear? Does the Ottawa Journal slander the city of Victoria or can it be a fact that the people of that city have condemned Mr. Templeman for supporting that policy and that course which the London Times and all British public men united in thinking to be praiseworthy in the extreme? Surely it cannot be that the city of Victoria, of all places, a Canadian minister has succumbed in defence of Imperial policy. Yet if it be true of Victoria I have hope of better things from Yale-Cariboo."

An Inter-Provincial Matter.
"On these two subjects of the provincial subsidies and Japanese exclusion I am not trying to make a vote-catching appeal. I am not trying to tickle your ears or curry your favor; by saying my views to any local prejudice or sympathy. I am, I believe, saying certain facts which are not intended to catch temporary sympathy, but which I believe are worth your careful consideration, facts without which no right decision on the subjects can be reached. Your better terms demand is an interprovincial matter with which neither the Imperial government nor the Dominion government has any real right to interfere. On that question the interprovincial conference must be the court of last resort; and the question is emphatically not one as between the Liberal and Conservative parties. And your Japanese exclusion question is undoubtedly one of those problems immediately before us, referred to by Lord Milner in the dealing with which we must arrive at the best system by actually practicing co-operation on the problems immediately before us. Our Imperial relationship and responsibility. If we are honest men we will scorn to hold the immense privilege of citizenship in the Empire without being willing to share the cost. "In these matters the Conservatives entirely reverse the correct attitude in each case. The provincial subsidies or better terms question, is one purely local or Canadian matter, a question for decision by the Canadian provinces alone. Yet Mr. McBride made a journey to London to ask for Imperial interference in this purely Canadian question, and Mr. Borden promises on his part to upset the decision of the conference reached by the interprovincial conference on this matter of strictly interprovincial concern. But on the Oriental immigration question which is admittedly one affecting the welfare of the Empire, Mr. Borden and Mr. McBride argue that we in Canada should decide and act with a view to our own local interests wholly and without regard to the interest or the wish of the other parts of the Empire."

"On these matters I appeal to your reason, and not to your prejudice, because I refuse to believe that you are unwilling to listen to reason, and notwithstanding what the city of Victoria may have done in the way of condemning Mr. Templeman's loyalty to the Empire, I am confident that in the end Sir Wilfrid Laurier's calm and sensible and statesmanlike and patriotic and successful course on this difficult Oriental immigration problem will receive the approval of a majority of the British Columbia people as it deserves and has received the approval of the British press and public and as well of a substantial majority of the people of Canada."

ELECTRICIAN

MAKES REPORT

M. HUTCHISON ON

CITY'S POWER SUPPLY

He Deals With Provision Now

Being Made to Cope With

Situation.

Although the shortage of light and power is over for the time being, the report of City Electrician Hutchison on the situation, prepared at the request of the city council, will be interesting to citizens. Mr. Hutchison finds that the capacity of the present water source of power has been outrun by the growing demands of the city, and that it is imperative that steps should be taken to provide an ample supply. He finds, however, that the company had installed and are installing a sufficient auxiliary steam plant to produce ample power, added to that generated at Goldstream, to take care of present needs. In his report he says the B. C. Electric Co. is taking means to prevent a recurrence of the recent difficulties, an assurance given the council a few days ago by A. T. Goward, local manager of the company.

Mr. Hutchison's report was read last night at the council meeting and was as follows:

Capacity of Plant.

Gentlemen, I have, as requested, made inquiry into the matter of power shortage recently experienced, and submit the following general report in reference thereto.

The supply of energy required for light and power and served from the system operated by the British Columbia Electric Railway Company, is primarily dependent upon power derived from the waters of Goldstream and vicinity, a property owned by the Esquimalt Water Works Company, under terms of contract entered into between the above mentioned companies. The daily supply of water is not to exceed a maximum of 15,000,000 imperial gallons per day. This amount, I presume, is the estimated safe capacity of the works in order to provide against interruption of service resulting from failure of supply or other unforeseen causes. It is essential that certain plant should be held in reserve, the capacity of said reserve being determined in each case according to the existing conditions. The greater the supply of power available in comparison to the demand, the less the investment in reserve plant, required and vice versa.

The following is a statement of capacity of plant operated by the B. C. Electric Company, also extracts from the daily reports furnished by the local manager and superintendent of the company:

Capacity of plant at—

Goldstream 1700 kilo watts

Reserve steam plant 500 kilo watts

At present being installed in Bayward's mill, 500 kilo watts

The capacity of the reserve plant is large and should under present conditions of load take care of any shortage of power likely to be experienced providing use is made of same sufficiently early, the problem from the operating standpoint being to avoid unnecessary expenditure by making too early use of steam equipment, and to avoid risk of power shortage by too late a start of reserve.

The Reserve Plant.

During 1907 the reserve plant was put into service on October 22nd and remained in operation until November 22nd. I am informed that throughout said period the full service was rendered and that it was afterwards found that the water supply would have proved adequate. It was also found that considerable leakage of water from ditches was taking place, amounting to approximately 1,000,000 gallons per day. The work of repairing these defects was undertaken during the past summer, also a considerable additional water storage has been provided. During the progress of these works of improvement an unavoidable loss of water took place, so much so that a shortage of water was anticipated. Any benefit resulting from the increased storage capacity will, of course, not be available until next year.

During the present year reserve plant was put into service on August 17th and operated satisfactorily until August 28th when commutator insulation broke down. Repairs to generator were completed on September 12th, and put into service. A second break down of insulation took place on September 21st, and repairs were completed on September 29th, and since that time has continued in service.

Break Down Unavoidable.

Having personally experienced considerable trouble with commutator insulation break down, I can vouch for the sudden development of these defects, and the difficulty of making repairs in this instance I made several visits to the sub-station and work was being carried on continuously.

As a result of trouble experienced twenty-two days' run of reserve plant was lost, during which time extra water to the extent of approximately 2,000,000 gallons per day was used as indicated in the following reports:

Water consumption on Aug. 15th, (Reserve not in use) 15,439,500

Average consumption, from Sept. 12th to 20th (reserve plant in use) 6,515,000

Multiplying the extra water used by the number of days of same and dividing by the average consumption during use of reserve plant, indicates that had plant operated as expected, full lighting and railway service could have been operated for an extra period of thirty days, and as curtailment of service covered a period of forty-two days, it will be seen that any inconvenience experienced would have been limited to about twelve days, and I am of the opinion that the arrangement made for reduction of service was the best possible under the circumstances.

Provision For Future.

Regarding storage battery, installation of which mention has been made, a storage battery is essentially not a primary source of power, but operated in conjunction with fluctuating load, such as street railway work, is capable of effecting considerable economy in water consumption by acting as a balance reservoir, as it were, to the system and taking care of the difference between supply and demand.

Regarding providing against future power shortage, the company's officials apparently realize the necessity of supplementing the present source of supply and have during the past year had expert engineers make surveys of the various probable power sources.

Reports on the same are at present under consideration. No decision in the matter has yet been reached, but the local manager states that the necessary steps will be taken to prevent any recurrence of the inconvenience experienced during the past few weeks and which I am of the opinion was due to the following:

1. Shortage of water supply.

2. Break down of reserve generator.

3. Increased demand due to growth of city.

In conclusion, I desire to state that the present conditions would indicate that the city's demand has exceeded the capacity of the present source of power and I consider it essential that steps should be taken to provide an ample supply to meet the rapidly increasing demand. I remain, yours obediently,

M. HUTCHISON,

City Electrician.

On motion of Ald. Pauline, seconded by Ald. McLean, the report was received and filed, and a copy was ordered to be sent to the B. C. Electric Company.

SWITCHMAN IN CUSTODY.

His Carelessness is Alleged to Have Caused Fatal Collision Between Street Cars.

Vancouver, Nov. 10.—William Ellis, the switchman to whose carelessness a fatal wreck on the B. C. Electric railway early on Sunday is charged, was arrested to-day. He disappeared immediately following the wreck, and declared to-day that he had been sick. He appears slightly demented. He may be charged with manslaughter.

ADMITTED FREE.

Vancouver, Nov. 10.—Two Chinese women, wives of Russian immigrants, were admitted to-day without payment of the $500 tax, on the ground that they are of the same nationality as their husbands.

KAISER MUST

KEEP SILENCE

HIS "INDISCRETIONS"

HAVE REACHED A LIMIT

Ministers Can No Longer Be

Responsible for Utterances.

Says Von Buelow.

Berlin, Nov. 11.—Emperor William never was so severely judged by his parliament as he was yesterday during the debate in the Reichstag on interpellations concerning the conversations published with the permission of the Emperor in the London 'Daily Telegraph' on October 28th.

The criticisms of His Majesty's court, his ministers and His Majesty's treatment of the constitution, as well as of his freedom of speech, went to lengths that astonished observers acquainted with the traditional caution of the chamber in dealing with the personality of the sovereign, and the emperor seemed to have no defenders.

Chancellor Von Buelow made an address lasting fifteen minutes, but he lacked the usual spirit, and a person high in his confidence in authority for the statement that he also had told the Emperor that neither himself nor his successors could remain in office unless His Majesty was more reserved.

The House received Von Buelow's explanation in icy silence. The Conservatives, representing the landed nobility, were almost as relentless as the Socialists, the Radicals and the National Liberals.

Yesterday's proceedings are regarded by the extreme Liberals as the beginning of a long contest between the crown and parliament that may end in Germany having a ministry responsible to parliament and not to the crown alone.

Prince Von Buelow spoke earnestly in reply to the criticism on the government and Emperor. He said:

"I must weigh my words because of the effect they will have abroad. I do not wish to add fresh prejudice to the damage already caused by the publication in the 'Daily Telegraph'. I assume that the details given therein are not all correct, and I am certain that the story about a detailed plan of campaign to end the Boer war is not right. The plan consisted merely of some academic ideas concerning the conduct of war in general, which the Emperor conveyed to Queen Victoria in the course of their correspondence, and it was without practical significance for the operations then going on or for the ending of the war."

"We must defend our policy during the Boer war against accusation and equivocation. We gave timely warning to the Boers that they were alone against England, and that there was no doubt regarding the result."

"The facts with reference to the question of intervention have long been public property, and whether the communication of these to Queen Victoria constitutes a violation of diplomatic rules depends on circumstances unknown to the public."

"Concerning the statement attributed to Emperor William, that a majority of the German people are hostile to Great Britain, the expression used by the 'Telegraph' is too strong. Serious and regrettable misunderstandings have existed between Great Britain and Germany, but the German people desire peaceful and friendly relations with the British empire, joined with mutual respect."

"Too great stress also is laid upon the point in the interview dealing with our interests in the Pacific ocean, which are incorrectly presented as inimical to Japan. We never thought about East Asia except for the purpose of obtaining a portion of the trade arising from economic development, and we have no idea of undertaking a maritime adventure there. The extension of the German fleet is just as little intended for aggrandizement in the Pacific ocean as the European policy is not to limit the development of Japan."

"For twenty years the Emperor has striven to improve the relations with Great Britain, often under difficult circumstances. The people of both countries occasionally have attacked each other without real justification, and the Emperor considered this a misfortune for both and a danger to the civilized world. The Emperor's idealistic thoughts, purposes and efforts, often without reason, have caused doubts to arise. We wish to avoid anything like the currying of favor abroad and anything appearing to savor of our insincerity or the running after anyone, but I quite understand the Emperor's feeling aggrieved when attacked, because of his zealous and honest efforts to bring about good relations with Great Britain in connection with the fleet, but these are entirely false."

"The recognition by His Majesty of the unjustified misunderstanding of his utterances in reference to Great Britain and the excitement and regret aroused thereby in Germany, will, I am convinced, lead the Emperor, in future private conversations, to exercise that reserve which in the interest of a uniform policy and the authority of the crown is indispensable. If this proves not to be so, neither I nor any one of my successors could take the responsibility. I accepted the blame for the publication of the article in the 'Daily Telegraph', and offered my resignation, and it was the most difficult task in my political life to resolve to remain in office. How long I will continue I do not know, but I consider it remain in office. How long I will continue to serve the Emperor and the nation."

Hatsfeldt, Conservatives, and Baron Von Hertling, a member of the Centre party, took part in the debate and energetically protested against the personal element being injected into foreign policies.

Herr Liebermann, Herr Sonnenschein, the Agrarian anti-Semite, surprised the House by the vehemence of his utterances. He declared that the Monarchists, with heavy hearts, found themselves compelled to protest against the Emperor's statements. The nation's confidence, he said, had sunk to zero.

"We do not believe," he continued,

"that the chancellor can take the responsibility, or that the future will bring any real improvement. The improvement will last only until the next time. Evidence exists that there is further material in foreign hands for use when the occasion calls."

The House adjourned to meet to-day, and when the chancellor departed the crowds outside the doors cheered and followed him.
